

Want to be sure you have a professional presentation for job search and college application? Need help with your resume and/or LinkedIn page? The National honor society is here to help! Throughout these unprecedented times NHS has helped the community. This time, we are helping students to improve their resumes and LinkedIn presence in preparation for their college applications or career. Find more information here. Follow the link "Build your personal brand."